Part-time lecturers and demonstrators in the Govt. School of Technology

Item (8) on page 2 ante

This varies according to requirements. In GO 423 Dev D 22.3.32 the Govt accepted the proposals of the DI to reduce the remuneration to part time lecturers during 32-33 from Rs 10, 6, 4 and 3 to Rs 8, 5, 3 and 2½ respectively. In GO 86 Dev D 20.1.33 it was reiterated that any further reduction was not necessary since the DI reported that he had reduced the rate of part-time lecturers by about 20% in view of this no action is considered necessary

Part time posts in the School

H 10-11 (V) are (1) An assistant Lecturer for the Mechanics class and (2) 3 demonstrators.

The D.I. has been instructed that the remuneration to be paid to these lecturers and demonstrators should be fixed with reference to the demand for and the supply of service and that it should not exceed Rs.5/- per hour for the lecturer and Rs.2/- for the demonstrator. The present rates are not high compared with the rates sanctioned for the Madras School above. Since fixing the maximum, considerable retrenchment has been effected in the School, vide G.O.521 dated 14-4-32.

Fisheries Department - Post of Lecturership in the Fisheries Training Institute, Calicut, held by the Research Assistant, West Hill.

With reference to the recommendation of the Retrenchment Committee, the Government examined in 1932 the remuneration paid to the Research Assistant. They considered that there was not sufficient justification for the grant of a special pay of Rs.25/- a month to him for his teaching work at the Institute. They directed that the Assistant should ~~in future~~ be given a remuneration at the rate of Rs.2/- per lecture delivered at the Institute. But as it was found that he would benefit more by this order as he had to deliver 20 lectures a month the order was modified and he was allowed to draw Rs.2/- per lecture subject to a maximum of Rs.24/- in any month. In view of these orders, no further revision of the scales of pay seems called for.

part-time lecturers and demonstrators in the Govt. trades school, Mangalore, ~~translate~~ it is observed that the rates were ~~originally~~ fixed by the Govt. in 1929 and that the question of reducing the rates has not been considered till now.

It is not clear why the question was not examined when the possibility of reducing the rates of remuneration in the Govt. school of technology, Madras was considered during 1932-33 — See notes on pages 27-40 of Go 86 dated 20.1.33.

Govt. apparently consider that the rates in the Mangalore school need not be reduced now for the following reasons:—

(1) the present rates are not high compared with the rates sanctioned for the Madras School.

(2) Since fixing the rates in the Mangalore school, considerable retrenchment has been effected in the school.

3 Item (1) above

~~Govt. rates sanctioned for~~ In the case of the Mangalore school, the Director of Industries has been instructed to fix the remuneration to be paid to part-time lecturers and demonstrators with reference the demand for and supply of such service in the town and it has also been laid down that the rates should not exceed Rs 5 per hour for lecturers and Rs 2 per hour for demonstrators. The rates of remuneration originally sanctioned for lectures in the Madras school were Rs

Fin 2707
Cir 16 Dec
20/133 (X)

Rs 10, 6, 4 and 3 and these were reduced, as a measure of retrenchment, to Rs 8, 5, 3 and 2 ± with effect from 1.4.32.

The rates in the Madras school were fixed with reference to the qualifications of the lecturers and the nature of the work to be performed by them. The fact that the rates in the Trangalore school are lower than those in the Madras school is no justification for not revising the former rates, when the rates of remuneration for part time posts in all Depts have been or have been being revised. It will be observed that the rates in the Madras School have also been revised.

4 Item (2) on page 6 above.

This also is no reason for not taking up the question of revision of remuneration for part time posts in the schools. It will be observed from the orders issued in Cir 521 dtd 14.4.32 regarding retrenchments in the industrial schools in Trangalore, Cuddapah and Bellary that the question of remuneration of part time staff in the schools was not considered then. The fact that retrenchment was effected in other directions is no reason why the rates of remuneration for part time posts should not be revised.

5 In the circumstances stated above,

& Gene was the Executive Engr in the Hydro-electric Dept, and there was a dispute in the Court Proceedings.

Dev. may be requested to take up the question of revising the rates of remuneration of part time staff in the Mangalore school. Finance may perhaps suggest that the maximum rates may be reduced as shown below:—

(S) Please see Fin note above on para 6 of Go: 691 Dev dtd 12.4.29. it has been directed that the remuneration to be paid to these lecturers and demonstrators should be fixed with reference to the demand for and the supply of such service in the town. The rates fixed in the G.O. are the maximum allowed. It is open to the Dir to employ a man available on the lowest pay he may offer. It has been ascertained that the lecturers are paid Rs 2/8 per hour and the demonstrators at Re 1/ per hour. In view of this it does appear ~~necessary~~ that any further action is necessary
